BRYANT'S FORD.

Cushman and Sears have laid the foundation for a nice lively stable on the spot formerly occupied by the old hotel stable which was burned several years ago.

T. R. Chase of N. Woodstock is having a severe case of neuralgia.

Isaac Howe got two fingers badly crushed while handling an oil barrel Monday.

W. H. Cole is painting his buildings.

The remains of E. M. Lawrence and wife, Geo. Ricker and wife and Mrs. Lois Ricker were removed from the family burial ground on the old Ricker farm last Wednesday and buried in the cemetery at Bryant's Point. The work was done by J. C. Perry of West Paris, who was employed by Isaac Lapham of Littlefield for this purpose. This old farm is one of the oldest in town, the first opening being made in 1802. It has always been occupied by Rev. David Ricker and his descendants, but the family have been dropping away one by one until the death of Emma, the eldest daughter, in August followed by the death of her husband, E. M. Lawrence in January broke up the family and left the old farm deserted.

Mr. Ricker, now over seventy years of age, has gone to reside with his second daughter, who married Isaac F. Lapham and lives at South Littlefield. Miss Lapham has gone to work at Lawrence, Mass., and Miss George Lawrence is attending school at Hallowell Academy. Sullivan Estes has hired the farm for this season.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Bowker have the addition of a daughter to their family.

H. F. Houghton has been getting a new supply of furniture and now has a good variety on hand.

CLINTON.

Boiler's Mills.

Sunday, the 24th inst., Willis C. Lowell was united in marriage to Miss Cummings of Harrison. The bride was with them a long and happy wedding.

Most of our teachers have commenced their summer's labor. Irene H. Dorman is at Deerfield. Lucy Dorman at Oatfield. Lizzie E. Lovell in Poplar Ridge district. Carrie Killbuck in the district at South Littlefield. Lella Stuart in the Wardwell district and Gertrude Haskell in "Swampy" district. Weston goes to Waterford. Misses Stuart, Haskell and Weston are new teachers.

Our village school has commenced under the instruction of Miss King of Paris, one of our former teachers.

Over forty trees were planted by the village on May 1st. A entertainment was held at Stuart's Hall in the evening.

FORGER-MORT.

STEWART WOODSTOCK.

The last day of Adams had a busy day here the 24th inst., the converts being Prof. Chamberlain and Geo. Wilson.

Miss Hazleton of Mechanic Falls has been visiting here the past week.

We saw Chas. Bartlett riding through town last week with a fine span of horses.

While G. L. Whitman was driving some stock to one of a nice pair of steers belonging to Mr. Whitman, he fell into a hole while crossing a brook and was killed.

Farmers are progressing finely in this part of the town. Some of them have finished sowing and nearly all have finished plowing and fencing.

We saw Harry Sanborn the other day with a nice string of trout, 40 in number.

The boys are busy going suckering and running May baskets. SCOTSDALE.

OXFORD.

Merrill Brooks has purchased a pair of horses.

E. A. Mitchell and family have moved to Lewiston.

Chas. Noble is occupying the old factory store as a meat market.

John Davis of Harrison, is finishing Stevens house.

Geo. F. Kavanagh is home from Gray's Mercantile College, Portland, where he graduated at the last term.

Mr. Geo. Hamilton of Dexter is visiting here the last of the week.

Our schools are progressing finely, and all delinquents are closely looked after.

There is a slight improvement in the probability of all sensible people.

MARK TAPLEY.

The large gear wheel near the water wheel in the factory broke Saturday, and a few minutes' stoppage was occasioned.

The wheel was an old one and it has been expected to give out for some time. A new one is all ready to be put in place.

Mr. Robinson hopes to be able to start up again by Wednesday morning.

Mr. Robinson will open a dentistry office here May 12th.

H. O. Blake has taken the Oxford County Agency for the Champion and the Victor brand trunks. These two brands of trunks are now manufactured by the same firm.

GREENWOOD.

The farmers are all very well along with their plowing and have mostly finished sowing. The grass is not winter killed and gives a green, healthy appearance. The late rain has given it an impetus which promises well for the coming crop.

C. C. Bryant of Bethel, has been installed overseer of the town farm for the coming year. Mr. B. has had a long experience in this calling, having served many years in his own town. He has a good head both being possessed of pluck and energy coupled with firmness and kindly disposition completely fitted them for this trying and responsible position.

The family consists of three inmates at present, one having been a hopeless maniac for nearly forty years. Joseph Lewis, who disappeared the first of the winter has not been heard from since. He was considered partially insane and manifested a morose and sullen disposition which caused him to be quite troublesome. He had a habit of wandering sometimes not being heard from for weeks and being an inveterate smoker and of intemperate habits, he was considered a dangerous intruder and without doubt caused the death of his husband, E. M. Lawrence in January broke up the family and left the old farm deserted.

Mr. Ricker, now over seventy years of age, has gone to reside with his second daughter, who married Isaac F. Lapham and lives at South Littlefield.
